

A Nationwide Celebration, and You are Invited!

National Entrepreneurship Week will be celebrated February 21-February 28, 2009, throughout our nation. The Business Communication and Entrepreneurship Department in the Jennings A. Jones College of Business is planning an entrepreneurship celebration Monday, February 23; Tuesday, February 24; and Friday, February 27. We extend a special invitation to you to participate in our celebration!

A variety of events are being scheduled so you can:

- enjoy a variety of exciting speakers/entrepreneurs and free food
- meet and network with a host of successful entrepreneurs including serial entrepreneurs
- learn from a successful audio productions entrepreneur
- gain insight into “hot” tech jobs
- listen to entrepreneurs talk about their experiences and insights
- hear about entrepreneurial opportunities in “green” sustainable businesses
- gain exposure to the experiences of an artist management group
- become familiar with advances in the health services arena
- learn from some of the best entrepreneurs

The grand finale for the week will be the Entrepreneurship Seminar scheduled for Friday, February 27, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. in the BAS State Farm Lecture Hall (S102). Refreshments will be served. Seminar speakers include Robert A. ‘Bobby’ Frist, Jr., CEO of HealthStream, Inc., Nashville, Tennessee, (www.healthstream.com) and Benjamin and Max Goldberg, Co-owners of Strategic Hospitality, Inc., Nashville, Tennessee, (www.paradiseparkonline.com) –website of the Goldbergs’ successful Nashville diner. Seminar speakers are young entrepreneurs who are making big waves in the entrepreneurial arena!

Since events will be scheduled throughout the week, you will have many opportunities to participate. You won’t want to miss any event; mark your calendar now so you will have time to attend as many functions as possible. Be sure to invite your friends to any or all of the scheduled events!
